

Grafton, Coos & Carroll County Republican Committees 2021 Lincoln-Reagan Dinner

Keynote - Senator Tom Cotton

Please join us in welcoming
U.S Sen. Tom Cotton, R-Ark., to Northern New Hampshire on Friday July 16, 2021

Sen. Cotton has been one of the GOP's strongest voices when it comes to challenging the Biden Agenda and the source of the Covid 19 pandemic. The mainstream media - after belittling Sen. Cotton for a year - is starting to come around about questions whether Covid-19 originated in a lab in China. Sen. Cotton has continued to challenge Dr. Fauci and push for the truth while supporting Israel, pushing against critical race theory, and fighting for Republican ideals.

About Sen. Cotton:

Senator Tom Cotton is a United States Senator from Arkansas. He serves on the Armed Services, Judiciary, and Intelligence Committees.

He is a 6th generation Arkansan who was born and raised on his family's cattle farm in Yell County. He graduated from Dardanelle High School before graduating from Harvard and Harvard Law School.

The September 11 terror attack occurred during Tom's final year of law school, leading Tom to decide to join the military. After clerking and a short time in private practice, Tom joined the Army as an Infantry Officer with the 101st Airborne. He served in Iraq, Afghanistan, and in the Old Guard at Arlington National Cemetery.

In 2012, Tom was elected to the House of Representatives and won a Democratic-held seat by 23 points. In 2014, Congressman Cotton defeated an incumbent Democratic Senator by 17 points. In 2020, Senator Cotton was re-elected by a 2-1 margin, with only a third-party opponent after his Democratic opponent quit the race.

Senator Cotton has been a leader on national security issues in the Senate. Some of his legislative accomplishments include: ending the Obamacare mandate tax as part of the 2017 Tax Cuts and Jobs Act; helping pass a bill to create a Veterans Administration Office of Accountability and Whistleblower Protection; securing funding for the military; and helping pass legislation to increase competition for prescription drugs.

Tom and his wife Anna have two sons.
